

The Clovis National Bank

"The Bank That Accommodates"

STRONG, WELL MANAGED, ACCOMMODATING

With ample facilities to handle anything in the line of Banking business. Our Stockholders and Directors are all local business men, who are interested in the welfare of our community.

The Clovis National Bank

Society Items.

BY MISS MILDRED MORGAN

Keystone Chapter No. 27 O. E. S. met for a call meeting last Friday evening in the Masonic Hall for the purpose of initiating Mrs. V. L. Griffin who had been accepted to receive the degree of the Eastern Star.

There was a large attendance and the evening was very enjoyable to all who were present. After the business had been attended to the ladies took their cake and chocolate and went to the Mother's Club meeting where all were very highly entertained. The Eastern Stars are always glad to do the right thing and this little kindness was highly appreciated by all of the Mothers.

The Mothers' and Teachers' Club entertained in the High School Auditorium last Friday evening. Much taste was displayed in the decorating of the building and a splendid Program had been prepared which was enjoyed by all. At a late hour dainty refreshment of hot chocolate and cake were served by Misses Lauer, McMahon, Hyatt and McMahon. The guests then departed for their several homes and thanked the Mothers and Teachers for this pleasant evening.

The members of the Fraternal Brotherhood met in a regular session at the home of Mrs. Ervine to install the officers for the year. Mr. Wooten was installed President.

The Boys of the Casey Jones Club are reorganizing and expect to have a fine time again this year with their meetings.

The dance given by the Elks last Thursday evening was a decided success as is usually the case when they entertain. Music was furnished by the Liebelt Orchestra which is a good sign the evening was spent very nicely in dancing to good music.

Miss Jessie Love entertained the younger crowd of Clovis with a unique little Party on last Friday evening. Various games and contests were engaged in until a late hour when dainty refreshments were served consisting of hot chocolate and wafers. The young people then thanked their charming little hostess for this the most enjoyable evening in months, after which they bid each other good-night. Those who were present on this occasion were Misses Helen Coon, Ruth Hemkell, Maude Suman, Cecil Siegnor, Goldie Seamon, Martha Brisky, Hallie Fitzhugh, Johnnie Stroud, Willie Hemphill, Vera May Hammond and Jessie Love. Messrs. Gay Billingsly, McCall Morris, Temple Odem, John Hyatt, Carl Love, Howard Dennis, Jim Smith, Lynn Turrentine, La Verne Machen, Everett Fitzhugh and Charlie Houchen.

Entertainment.

An entertainment consisting of illustrated songs, musical program and illustrated lecture is to be given by the Ladies of the Aid Society of the Christian church at the Lyceum Theater, Monday evening January 29th, 7:45 P. M. The illustrated lecture will be given by Mr. Rose, State Bible School Superintendent who is supplying the pulpit of the local church temporarily. The subject, "Historical Reminiscences" is illustrated throughout with stereopticon pictures.

The Havener Midget.

The farmers in the Havener vicinity are plowing this week. Getting ready for a big crop next year. That's right boys go after it.

Geo. Briggs spent the evening at Frank Mager's Sunday. He entertained with the violin, come again George.

D. V. Winn, Geo. Ormsby and Frank Mager stacked feed for Geo. Roach the first of the week.

W. H. Eshelman is plowing this week preparing his ground to put into orchard this year. Mr. Eshelman believes that with proper care he can grow fruit on these plains.

Geo. Ormsby was visiting among the neighbors this week.

Frank McGee was in Clovis Wednesday on business.

John Magee went up on Poverty Ridge Wednesday to begin plowing. You need a cook John so get busy.

Mr. Eshelman went to Clovis Saturday.

Curry on Committee.

On the committee of coinage, weights and measures, George Curry has been placed. Ferguson is not yet assigned to committees. Curry and Ferguson had names called for their vote the first time from the forty-seventh state, late yesterday afternoon. Chief Justice W. H. Pope is in Washington awaiting the return from Panama of Attorney General Wickershaw who is expected on Monday.

Local News.

Dad. Human who is well known to all the old timers of Clovis came up Wednesday from Dexter where he now resides. Mr. Human was postmaster here preceding the present incumbent W. A. Davis.

We Receive Cream on Thursday of each week.
A. J. Rodas & Co.

Mr. Whiting proprietor of the and 10 cent store returned last week from Kansas.

More than a hundred views of Europe, Asia and Africa, Lyceum theater Monday night.

Mr. Jno. G. Harper from Spartenburg, W. Va., was in the city Tuesday, he having land interests in this vicinity. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the progress of the town since his last visit here.

Plow Harness, trace chains and collars, at Millren-Buchanan Hdw. Co.

Archdeacon Warren of Albuquerque, was a visitor at the Commercial College last week.

Entertainment illustrated throughout Lyceum theater Monday night.

Wm. Vanderwart left last Friday for Kansas City to look after business affairs.

We receive Cream on Thursday of each week.
A. J. Rodas & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughbell of Crossett, Arkansas, are visiting in Clovis and will probably locate here.

See us about Harness and Harness Goods.

Born—Mr. and Mrs. Ward are the proud parents of a 12 pound girl.

Don't miss the entertainment Lyceum theater Monday night.

G. W. Coons has opened a new carpenter shop near the freight depot on south Main Street, where he is prepared to do all kinds of job work "right now" at reasonable prices.

For Sale.—First-class Remington typewriter in perfect condition. Inquire at this office.

The boys of the Clovis Commercial College have organized their Basketball team under the management of Roy Morgan, we are expecting great things of the boys and they sure are making an excellent start.

FOR SALE—Two good gasoline engines. Inquire at this office.

Leave orders for Implement repairs with us, Millren-Buchanan Hdw. Co.

C. M. C. Stewart, brother of our townsman Mr. J. C. Stewart has made a valuable chemical discovery, which, in connection with his mineralogical acquisitions in Alaska, are destined to make him independently rich.

Fine illustrated songs, Lyceum theater Monday night.

A marriage license has been issued to Fred Anderson Teter, of Clovis, N. M., and Gertrude Vestal of Harper county, Oklahoma, January 23, 1912.

Only well known dependable Implements sold by us see us before you buy, Millren-Buchanan Hdw. Co.

Miss Gwendolyn Truscott is expected in a few days to spend a few days as guest of her sister, Mrs. H. A. Armstrong.

Attend the Chautauqua entertainment Lyceum theater, Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Towery are expected this week after an extended visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Thomas of Slayton came up to Clovis the first of the week to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. Spears went to Portales the first of the week on business.

O. O. Skips with went down to Roswell this week.

Mrs. Cooper who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Dick Gayle has returned to her home in Colorado Springs.

D. Peol who is employed by the Santa Fe is reported to be on the sick list this week.

Mr. McGee returned from Santa Fe Monday where he had been looking after business affairs.

Dick Maskburn who has been in the employ of Supt. McMahon for the past year has gone to Denver, Colo., to locate.

Dr. Dillon who has been sojourning in Ft. Worth for the past few months, has returned to Clovis to make this city his future home. The doctor has been around considerably, but finds no place that suits him as well as Clovis. He will open an office over the First National Bank, where he will be glad to meet all his old friends and appreciate the business of both old and new patrons. The doctor has refurnished his office with elegant up-to-date furniture and is prepared to give prompt attention and proper accommodation to all visitors.

Miss Ata B. Appleman, assistant postmistress returned this week from a weeks visit in Ft. Worth, Texas. Her genial face has been missed at the delivery window during her absence and we are glad to see her back.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Herbert will leave in a few days for a trip to Monroeville, California. They expect to be absent two months or more.

The College boys won a decided victory over the Co. K. boys Tuesday night, the score being 28-16 favor the college.

C. V. STEED

Undertaker & Embalmer
Manager Clovis Cemetery

Day Phone 14.

Night Phone 38.

The Magic City Furniture and Undertaking Company

Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Fine Ambulance

Day Phone 211

Night Phone 235

Claim to Lease—Will lease my claim situated 2 miles south and 1 mile east of Clovis. 70 acres broke. Will let out on crop shares. Inquire at office.
W. J. Carren.

W. T. Knight will arrive in Clovis Sunday to visit friends and relatives for a few days.

J. A. Klesner, the construction superintendent of the Santa Fe, left Monday for Clovis after spending a couple days in this city on business for the road.
—Roswell Record.

We acknowledge a pleasant call this week from two of the most sturdy farmers of Quay county, W. R. Adams and L. G. Davis of Field, post office. These gentlemen do all their trading in Clovis and like Clovis better than Tucumcari, because, as they say, they can do better here. Call again Gentlemen, Clovis always treats the caprock farmers right and appreciate their trade.

Late this afternoon, Judge H. D. Terrell, filed a petition on behalf of O. L. Owen of Clovis, Democratic candidate for corporation commissioner asking for a writ of quo warranto to be issued on George H. Van Stone, Progressive Republican, who yesterday qualified as corporation commissioner. A petition of intervention on behalf of George W. Armijo, Republican candidate for Corporation Commissioner, will be filed. Van Stone will question the jurisdiction of the court. The facts in the case are well known, 1032 votes cast for Sol Owen not being counted for O. L. Owen, giving Van Stone a majority. Armijo claims fraud sufficient to have lost him the election.
—New Mexican.

John Anderson left for Amarillo on business today.

Rev. C. H. Brown left Thursday for Yeso, N. M., where he will conduct a series of meetings.

For A Thorough Business Education Go to the Clovis Commercial College.

DIRECTORS

B. D. OLDHAM, ESQ., Cashier First National Bank; PROF. L. C. MERSFELDER, County Superintendent of Schools; HON. R. E. ROWELLS, Attorney-at-Law; DR. J. FOSTER SCOTT, JR., E. J. HOERING.

EDWARD HOERING, President
Instructor in Shorthand and Typewriting.

MRS. FRANK B. GRANT,
Instructor in Shorthand, etc.

L. C. MERSFELDER, (County Superintendent of Schools)
Instructor in Bookkeeping, Letter writing, etc.

HON. R. E. ROWELLS, (Late Probate Judge of Curry County)
Instructor in Commercial Law, etc.

D. N. CROFT
Instructor in Arithmetic, etc.

N. B. POND
Cashier American Bank & Trust Co. Instructor in Practical Banking, etc.

B. D. MOORE
Instructor in Bookkeeping and Spelling.

ROY STROUVELLE
Instructor in Penmanship.

J. Q. LAUER
Instructor in Telegraphy.

MISS MILDRED MORGAN,
Secretary and Advertising Manager.

The College will open on January 10th, 1912, but students may enter at any time, as much of the instruction will be individual.

Get a Catalogue Now